

ISO 9001 certification – update

We recently contacted LRQA. They have confirmed that our quality management system fully complies with the requirements of ISO 9001 and that our ISO 9001 certificate is valid.

To avoid confusion in the future, the expiry dates of our IATF 16949 and ISO 9001 certificates will be aligned. This means that we will not have a separate ISO 9001 certificate available for download until March 1, 2026.

However, our management system is demonstrably in line with the ISO 9001 standard. Customers can refer to the expiry date of our IATF 16949 certification for this purpose. This approach has been fully confirmed by the LRQA technical team.
